

CHEIKH ANTA DIOP & THÉOPHILE OBENGA ON AFRICA AS THE CRADLE OF WRITING.

PANEL DISCUSSION and INTERVENTIONS

At an alarming moment in his philosophising, Georg Wilhelm Hegel described the African continent as a place without writing systems and therefore without history. Based on research and studies by the anthropologist Cheikh Anta Diop and the linguist Théophile Obenga, this panel discussion aims to bring to light that this blindness rather bear witness of Hegel's misjudgement of African cosmogonies and mythologies. The panel discussion is part of the finissage of the exhibition AFRICAN WRITING SYSTEMS and SELF KNOWLEDGE of the association AFRIEUROTEXT at the venue Lassallestraße 20/3, 1020 Vienna. All interested guests are cordially invited to visit the exhibition of AFRIEUROTEXT after the event. This event takes place in the framework of Black History Month and the AFRIEUROTEXT Science and Art Programme 2023 in cooperation with Weltmuseum Wien. AFRIEUROTEXT is a cultural association and bookshop with educational and developmental agendas in Austria and in African countries.
